despite the fact it's called "shower with your dad simulator", it is actually a pretty fun simple game.. Clearly fake.

The black kid has a father.. Since I dont have any contact with my dad this is a very good substitute so I remember why we dont have any contact anymore.. The story brought me to tears. 10/10 would lather again.. This game sorely needs a VR version.

Sorely.. After nearly 4 years of playing this game, I conclude that it is one of the best games of all time. It's a treat to be able to come home from my job and play this.

Since my dad left me when I was 3, I've needed a way to come to terms with his disappearance, and this game has really helped me recover.
